W. Spring, Pa.; Dr. H. F. Hutchinson, U. S. A.; Non ARYLUM.—Testerday afternoon, the members of the Board of Aldermen and Common Council, together with the Mayor, paid a visit to the Washinson Asylum, in secondance with the invitation of the intendant. After some time spent in visiting various portions of the establishment, grounds, a., all of which were found in excellent condition, clean and tidy, the visitors were escorted to the dining room, where an elegant supper was provided for the distinguished guests.

After full justice had been done to the edibles which had been prepared in a superior manner and stranged in fine croter, this Honor, the Mayer, gave which had been prepared in a superior manner and supercistion of the fine dinner prepared in a superior manner and appreciation of the fine dinner prepared in a superior manner and the pleasure of catting a dinner with this Hunor in a poor house.

The visitors soon after left the asylum for this city, all expressing themselves perfectly satisfied with the appearance of this excellent institution.

ATTEMPTED FRAUD—A Respectable Firm in Cincinnati Implicated.—A few days since the Surgeon General received from the firm of Z. Wayns & Ch. Chotnnati, Olio, samples of what was represented to be gramulated beef fea, with a proposition of Senatur Founeroy.

co. Cincinnati, Ohio, samples of what was repre-sented to be gramulated beef tea, with a proposition of the parties to furnish the same on reasonable serms. The Surgoon General, knowing the respon-sible and respectable character of the firm, sent the tea to Dr. Woodward, for the purpose of having him ascertain the amount of muscular fibre which it contained, not entertaining the least suspiction that the article was not all that was represented. On being subjected, however, to a chemical analysis, the grains were discovered to be composed mostly of starch and roaside dreakers, which appear to have been boiled in beef soup, or something of that description.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—We have heard great complaints in regard to the crueity exhibited to-wards the sunmals slaughtered for the same at the Government slaughter house, near the Virginia end of the Long Bridge. It is said that the poor animals are handled and killed in manner which would shock the sensibilities of a Camanche Indian. They are brought into a small room, some four or five at a time, and brutes, in the shape of uses, enter and knock them about, striking them with the face of an axe, cutting them about the nose and head horribly. On one occasion a fine, large ox kicked one of his formentors—the inhuman man raised his axe and dealing a powerful blow, chopped off the leg that kicked him. We hope this abuse will be looked after. per, and the same is hereby appropriated out of the general fund.

SEVERTI STREET AND THE AVENUE—In consequence of the frequent passing of street cars and other vehicles, the crossings at the intersection of these streets, have become quite dangerous to peatrians, especially women and children. In accordance with a request of the Board of Aldermen, at its last meeting, we understand that the Superistendent of the Metropolitan Police is about to station one or more policemen on this corner, for the better protection of pedestrians.

Weshington, November 20, 1982.

Whilst another section of our country is famineworn, and sister cities lie prostrate from evils dreadful to suffer and mournful to behold, results of a blind and lawless resistance to constitutional suthority and the majesty of the law, an all-seeing Providence has averted from us this curse of treason, and with an unreluctant hand vuchsafed innumerous evidences of His grace.

For that manifestation and this benediction it behooves us to be thankful, and I therefore, and in compliance with the following joint resolution of the City Councils, request my fellow-citizens to ab-stain from secular employment, and, assembling in their respective places of worship on Thursday
